Accomplishments

▶ We have completely revamped the program with a new program director, associate program director, and new faculty. We have increased fellow exposure to quality and quantity of cases.

Strengths

1. We have a new program director, Dr. Prakash Balan.
2. The Department of Cardiology has hired new faculty members specializing in interventional cardiology.
3. We have developed and implemented a new interventional cardiology conference as well as our teaching curriculum.
4. We developed a broader interventional experience to expose fellows to multiple clinical sites.
